RACE RIOTS!

A convoy of riot Police rush to a new racial disturbance in Bristol

JUNGLE DRUMS ARE THROBBING ONCE AGAIN!

BIGGER and more terrible race riots than those which tore the heart out of many English cities last year are in store this coming summer. Jungle drums in multiracial areas throughout the land are pounding out their ugly message of race war!

Desperate efforts have been made by the authorities to try and placate the disgruntled and riot-prone Black communities.

They sent in Lord Scarman to listen to their complaints and to admonish the Police, first at his public inquiry and then in his Report.

"Scotland Yard and Government ministries have also been fitted with anti-bomb defences. Police chiefs fear outbreaks of rioting could break out as early as April."

A more detailed account of Police preparations was published in the Guardian on 18th February under the headline "Metropolitan police forces set up riot squads":

BIGGER and more terrible race riots than those which tore the heart out of many English cities last year are in store this coming summer. Jungle drums in multiracial areas throughout the land are pounding out their ugly message of race war!

Desperate efforts have been made by the authorities to try and placate the disgruntled and riot-prone Black communities.

They sent in Lord Scarman to listen to their complaints and to admonish the Police, first at his public inquiry and then in his Report.

They have showered Black community organisations with millions of pounds worth of public money.

They have laid plans to spend millions more on West Indian style 'Carnivals' – not just in Notting Hill, but in Liverpool, Manchester and elsewhere.

They have decided not to prosecute the eight ringleaders of last year's Brixton riots "in the interests of good race relations".

They have put in hand a variety of 'Positive Discrimination' schemes designed to give Black areas preferential treatment as regards jobs, housing and welfare.

But all to no avail.

The Blacks are going to riot again. The authorities know it and are preparing for it.

During February the Sun reported:

"Police stations are being converted into mini-fortresses to repel possible attacks by rioters this summer.

"Specially reinforced shutters are being fitted to all stations thought likely to be attacked by mobs throwing bombs or bricks.

Ambulance men are now being issued with Crusader style Red Cross jerkins and crash helmets. Last year ambulance and Fire Brigade personnel were attacked by mobs of rioting Blacks.

"Scotland Yard and Government ministries have also been fitted with anti-bomb defences. Police chiefs fear outbreaks of rioting could break out as early as April."

A more detailed account of Police preparations was published in the Guardian on 18th February under the headline "Metropolitan police forces set up riot squads":

"Most large metropolitan police forces have trained special riot squads and equipped them with CS gas and plastic bullets in anticipation of further riots this summer.

"BASED ON WARTIME"

"The squads are based on the police support units originally set up to deal with civil defence in time of war.

"They are being provided with reinforced vans, modified NATO glass fibre helmets as used by the Army in Northern Ireland, fireproof overalls and short shields.

" 'Pig squirt' water cannon, which are adapted armoured personnel carriers, will be available through the Home Office from Ministry of Defence stores . . .

" . . . It has been estimated that there are about 11,000 members of the police support units in Britain. They have been formed in nearly every force on a divisional basis, each comprising 34 men in three vehicles . . . they form a national mutual aid system."

The information about these police support units and their national mutual aid system was contained in the report of a Home Office working party set up under the Chairmanship of Mr. R. J. Andrew, Deputy Under Secretary for the Home Office's police and fire services department.

HOME OFFICE REPORT

The working party was established after the riots in Brixton last April. Its report was placed in the House of Commons Library last October, but was not published.

"A more practical and less philosophical training in policing multi-racial inner-city areas is the theme of this year's senior command course at the Police Staff College, Bramshill, reported the Daily Telegraph on 8th March.

In what may be a reference to police support units and their national mutual aid system, the Chief Superintendents attending the Bramshill course will be involved in what are described as "field exercises to promote co-operation in dealing with inner-city problems."

For all the waffle about "community policing", it is quite clear that the Police and other of the authorities are gearing themselves up for a race riot emergency this year which could take on the character of a racial civil war.

Britain will have no peace or stability as long as she remains a multi-racial society. In view of the horrors that the authorities are preparing for, the National Front's programme of repatriation for Blacks should be given serious consideration by all people of goodwill.

THREE WHITES SLAIN–BUT WHO CARES?

WHEN South African Asian Dee Nayer saw his 12 year old son Darren fighting outside their Nuneaton home with 12 year old Jason Barnes, son of a neighbouring White family, he took a machete and slashed the throat of Jason's mother Margaret, killing her.

On 8th March Nayer pleaded Not Guilty to murdering Mrs. Barnes on the grounds of "provocation" and "diminished responsibility", but pleaded Guilty to manslaughter.

Nayer claimed his family had been called "black bastard" and "niggers" by members of the Barnes family.

Mr. Justice Hirst considered that the "racial abuse" was the most significant aspect of the affair and so he let Nayer leave the Court a free man after imposing a two year suspended sentence.

A day later West Indian Newton Rose had his conviction for the Hackney murder of White youth Tony Donnelly quashed by the Appeal Court because the trial judge had asked the jury to expedite their deliberations.

- STOP PRESS: Four of the nine Black youths charged with the murder of White youth Terry May were released from the Old Bailey dock on 16th March "for lack of evidence".

BLACK CRIME: WE WERE RIGHT

THE fact that the vast majority of muggings in London are perpetrated by Blacks – as confirmed in Scotland Yard's annual crime report published on 10th March – came as no surprise to regular readers of NF News.

What has come as a surprise is the decision of Metropolitan Police Commissioner Sir David McNee to publish a racial breakdown of the capital's crime explosion.

Many observers see the publication of race-crime statistics as being part of the Police response to the general drift of the Scarman report on the riots in Brixton last year.

In his report Scarman indicated that intensive sweeps against muggers – such as 'Operation Swamp' mounted in Brixton – are bad because they "provoke" Black people to riot and damage "community relations".

The facts contained in the Police report are too shocking for the public to tolerate the Police following the Scarman "Community Relations before law enforcement" line.

As expected, the Lambeth district – which includes Brixton – produced the worst mugging figures. Last year there were 2,493 muggings, 327 by Whites (13.1%), 1,988 by Blacks (79.7%), 72 by mixed-race gangs and 106 where the race of the mugger is unknown.

Other nightmare areas are Hackney (a total of 1,599: 79.7% Blacks, 13.1% Whites); Haringey & Enfield (1,199: 65.8% Blacks, 14.6% Whites); and Lewisham & Bromley (1,376: 65.4% Blacks, 21.0% Whites).

The West Midland Chief Constable Sir Philip Knights recently published his crime statistics report for 1981. A noted multi-racialist, Knights not only does not produce racial statistics, he hides figures for muggings in categories which include bank hold-ups!

No. 39 APRIL 1982

A SAVAGE MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE

ON 20th April 1981 the National Front staged a march from Forest Hill, Lewisham. Among the group of Wandsworth NF Branch members who attended the event was Peter Berbridge, the Branch Organiser, his wife and two children, and a young man who has since left the NF called Gary Savage.

Mr. Berbridge was charged with "GBH with intent" – a very serious charge – and last month he was tried, convicted and jailed for two years. Mr. Berbridge and his colleagues were foolish not to name Savage as the assailant long before the trial, but they hoped that Savage would not make an innocent man risk jail for a crime he did not commit. These hopes were misplaced. Savage once told the Editor of this paper: "If Peter goes down for what I did, that's just the luck of the draw." He later threatened a man who let it be known that he intended to give evidence as to what happened at Forest Gate.

The Courts must review the conviction of Peter Berbridge as a matter of urgency.

NF News seeks to persuade its readers to feel angry about the evils of multi-racialism and to direct their anger solely at the corrupt politicians who created a racial problem in Britain, and not to the Immigrant people in general. "Racialism" is NOT unlawful – only "racial hatred".

After a year which has seen Britain's manufacturing output drop by over 14% and our unemployment soar to over three million, the Conservative Government is now going to push Britain still further towards bankruptcy by borrowing £9,500 million.

There was no mention of import controls to stop the flood of foreign goods into Britain while our workers are joining the dole queues. Nor was there any mention of exchange controls which are desperately needed to prevent money from leaving Britain to be invested in foreign firms when our own industries are being starved of investment.

FLIGHT OF CAPITAL

This sudden loss of markets which British industry was geared to supply started a decline which has continued ever since. This could have been reversed by a programme of investment to modernise British industry. Instead of this, however, international bankers and multinational companies were moving money out of Britain.

This process was speeded up by our entry into the Common Market in 1973 and even more so by Margaret Thatcher's recent removal of all exchange controls.

In order to cover up the effects of this flight of capital and of industry, successive Governments have resorted to borrowing money to create jobs. But most of these jobs were in service industries and did not add to the total wealth

BRITAIN or Poland – it makes no difference to the bankers. They'll crush nationhood and freedom anywhere in the world to uphold their usury.

The bankers have enormous power because they batten onto the wealth-creating capacities of whole nations. The phenomenal sums which the bankers claim they are owed – and upon which they demand endless interest payments – did not exist as real wealth in the first place. The sums loaned were created out of nothing simply by means of the bankers making entries in their own ledgers, and then passing out credit notes.

The bankers' swindle began in the Middle Ages when the wealthy found it expedient to store their bullion in the strongrooms of goldsmiths. The goldsmiths issued receipts for the deposited gold and in due course such receipts came to be used as tokens of wealth in transactions. This resulted in the gold remaining in the goldsmiths' vaults undisturbed by withdrawals for long periods.

LENDING ON NOTHING

Noting that withdrawals from their vaults were rare, the goldsmiths hit upon the idea of lending out at interest not only the total amount of the gold they actually had on deposit but many times that amount. They were able to do this because they issued their loans in the form of credit notes, not in gold coinage. Needless to say, repayments of such loans had to be made in the form of real wealth.

The international bankers of today operate fundamentally the same swindle on a gigantic scale. The sums 'owed' to them by nations are so huge that they can never be

CRISIS IN POLAND

LAST December Poland was placed under martial law with the enthusiastic approval of Soviet Russia. This development evoked only token expressions of "outrage" from the leaders of the "freedom-loving West" such as Margaret Thatcher and Ronald Reagan.

Why did the West protest less forcefully over the imposition of a military dictatorship in Poland than when Russia established a similar dictatorship in Afghanistan?

The reason why is because Poland is hugely in debt to Western Capitalist international banks and is virtually bankrupt.

BORROW MORE

For years international banks and finance houses have been persuading the Polish government to borrow more and more money so that they could grow rich on the interest payments. These loans were not wisely invested by the Polish government but were simply spent on keeping itself in power.

By the late 1970's Poland's debts to the international banks exceeded £5,000 million, which was higher than their entire annual exports. Yet it is only by earning money from exports that they could ever repay this enormous sum.

This did not greatly worry the banks because the last thing they wanted was to have the debts repaid. They simply wanted the Polish people to pay interest forever.

13 BILLION DEBT

However by the beginning of 1980 Poland's total debt had risen to over £13,000 million and the bankers were being forced to lend Poland money simply to pay the interest on previous loans.

The payment of this interest was

What is happening in Poland is no longer determined by the Polish people or even by a Polish Communist government. Events in Poland are now determined by the bankers.

But they are not happy because they now realise that Poland simply cannot generate enough money to pay the interest on their debts and it has already defaulted on one payment of £40 million.

DEFAULT FEAR

This was owed to an American manufacturer for the supply of agricultural equipment and payment was guaranteed by the US government controlled Commodity Credit Corporation.

Normally with such a large claim there would be a stringent examination. However in this case the controls to stop the flood of foreign goods into Britain while our workers are joining the dole queues. Nor was there any mention of exchange controls which are desperately needed to prevent money from leaving Britain to be invested in foreign firms when our own industries are being starved of investment.

ELECTION BRIBES

Sir Geoffrey Howe has done what every other Chancellor of the Exchequer has done since the War when presenting a budget at a time when a general election is beginning to loom on the horizon. He has totally ignored Britain's long term needs in favour of a few goodies which may produce a temporary drop in inflation and in unemployment in time to get the Conservatives re-elected for a further term.

BRITAIN is steadily becoming a wasteland, an industrial slum – not because the British people can't – or won't – work, Despite the recession British workers are creating wealth but it is being bled away in interest payments to the bankers, or exported to fund foreign competition.

This continual handing out of bribes whenever an election approaches now means that the British Government has a total debt of over £60,000 million which in 1980 cost £11,285 million in interest charges alone. This works out at about £800 for an average family.

GATT TREASON

The bankers consolidated their stranglehold after the last war. In 1947 under the auspices of the United Nations a conference took place at Geneva which set up the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT). Under this agreement Britain lost all the protected markets of the Commonwealth and even lost the right to protect our own home market from foreign imports.

industry. Instead of this, however, international bankers and multinational companies were moving money out of Britain.

This process was speeded up by our entry into the Common Market in 1973 and even more so by Margaret Thatcher's recent removal of all exchange controls.

In order to cover up the effects of this flight of capital and of industry, successive Governments have resorted to borrowing money to create jobs. But most of these jobs were in service industries and did not add to the total wealth creating capacity of Britain.

Between 1971 and 1981 the number of jobs in manufacturing industry fell from 7.9 million to 5.9 million – a drop of more than 25%.

CUTS PAY INTEREST

As each year goes by the government has to borrow more money, not only to cover up the cracks in our industrial framework but increasingly to pay the interest on the existing debt.

In 1977 the then Prime Minister, James Callaghan was forced to crawl to the International Monetary Fund for an emergency £6,000 million loan. The bankers agreed to this on condition he guaranteed interest payments by increasing taxation while slashing expenditure on education, health, welfare and housing.

While a Labour government commenced the current round of cuts in services, the Conservative government continued the programme with gusto. Neither party offers any hope for the British people because both are slaves to the insatiable greed of international usurers.

were created out of nothing simply by means of the bankers making entries in their own ledgers, and then passing out credit notes.

The bankers' swindle began in the Middle Ages when the wealthy found it expedient to store their bullion in the strongrooms of goldsmiths. The goldsmiths issued receipts for the deposited gold and in due course such receipts came to be used as tokens of wealth in transactions. This resulted in the gold remaining in the goldsmiths' vaults undisturbed by withdrawals for long periods.

Noting that withdrawals from their vaults were rare, the goldsmiths hit upon the idea of lending out at interest not only the total amount of the gold they actually had on deposit but many times that amount. They were able to do this because they issued their loans in the form of credit notes, not in gold coinage. Needless to say, repayments of such loans had to be made in the form of real wealth.

The international bankers of today operate fundamentally the same swindle on a gigantic scale. The sums 'owed' to them by nations are so huge that they can never be paid off. Indeed, they are not intended to be paid off. The purpose of the debts is to enable the bankers, through never ending interest payments, to tithe nations of the world of the wealth that their people produce through productive work and to exert a controlling influence over their governments.

"BETTER DISCIPLINED"

The bankers have happily loaned untold billions behind the Iron Curtain because under Communism "the workforce is better disciplined" – strikes and unions are illegal. Swingeing cuts in living standards to meet interest payments are enforced by tanks, as in Poland.

Cuts in services and wages in Britain have likewise been prompted by the 'need' to maintain interest payments. Indeed, such cuts were a condition of the £6,000 million IMF loan made in 1977.

There will be no freedom or prosperity for Britain, Poland or anywhere else until Usury Capitalism is eliminated.

virtually bankrupt.

BORROW MORE

For years international banks and finance houses have been persuading the Polish government to borrow more and more money so that they could grow rich on the interest payments. These loans were not wisely invested by the Polish government but were simply spent on keeping itself in power.

By the late 1970's Poland's debts to the international banks exceeded £5,000 million, which was higher than their entire annual exports. Yet it is only by earning money from exports that they could ever repay this enormous sum.

This did not greatly worry the banks because the last thing they wanted was to have the debts repaid. They simply wanted the Polish people to pay interest forever.

13 BILLION DEBT

However by the beginning of 1980 Poland's total debt had risen to over £13,000 million and the bankers were being forced to lend Poland money simply to pay the interest on previous loans.

The payment of this interest was beginning to cripple Poland's economy, and to raise the necessary cash the Polish Government imposed massive price rises. This was followed by widespread industrial unrest, shortages of goods in the shops, including food, and the emergence of Solidarity which was pledged to fight for the rights of the Polish people.

The only way in which Poland could rescue its crippled economy would be to renege on these enormous debts. The international bankers had to provide against such a "calamitous" possibility and so in February 1981 they sent in a team from the International Monetary Fund.

Within a few days the existing Communist government – which was supposedly "soft" on Solidarity – was replaced by a "hardline" government headed by General Jaruzelski who consolidated his position and then imposed martial law.

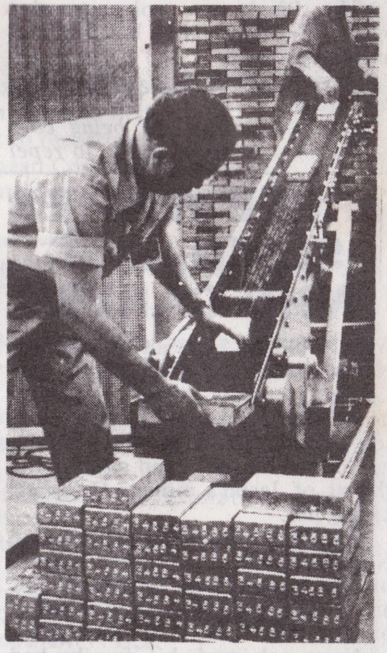
Since the Jaruzelski takeover in February 1981 the Polish Government has been imposing more and more economic hardships on the Polish people in order to raise the money to pay the bankers.

pay the interest on their debts and it has already defaulted on one payment of £40 million.

DEFAULT FEAR

This was owed to an American manufacturer for the supply of agricultural equipment and payment was guaranteed by the US government controlled Commodity Credit Corporation.

Normally with such a large claim there would be a stringent examination. However in this case the manufacturers were compensated without even having to file a claim.



GOLD by the ton is stored in the vaults of the International Monetary Fund building in Washington – and moved from room to room as it is 'loaned'.

The reason for this was that the American banks and consequently the American government were scared that the news of the default would cause a crisis of confidence throughout the whole of the international financial system – which would trigger off a catastrophic world slump.

If Poland stops paying the bankers, then so might Roumania which owes £8,000 million, Nigeria with £3,000 million, Mexico with £30,000 million . . .

That's the reason why Reagan and Thatcher did nothing to protect the Polish people last December.

ANDREW, DAVID AND JOHN DEFY THE RED BULLY BOYS

IT IS not easy being one of the National Front's activists. The moment you make a stand for your race and nation then you find gangs of Communists – as often as not led by Zionist Jews – trying to scare you into silence by subjecting you to relentless victimisation, defamation and violence. Some people can't take the pressure, and crumple. Others stand up and defy their tormentors and, by displaying courage, defeat them. This feature is about three men whose steadfastness in the face of persecution gives the cause they represent moral force.

Andrew Brons

IT WAS something of a blow for those responsible for cranking up the anti-National Front hate machine when 34-year-old Andrew Brons came to be elected Chairman of the party.

Not only is Mr. Brons not like Alf Garnet's son to look at or talk to, he possesses qualities and qualifications which totally contradict the Left Wing stereotype of an NF person.

He is happily married and lives quietly with his wife Sue and their two daughters, Louise and Emma, in a 'semi' in Harrogate, North Yorkshire.

He has a BA degree from York University and for the past eleven years has lectured in government and politics at Harrogate College of Further Education.

The college Principal, Mr. Peter Drake, confirms that Mr. Brons is good at his job:

SMASH THE IRA!

COVENTRY was to have been the location of this year's IRA 'Bloody Sunday' march, set for Sunday 31st January, but an announcement from the National Front that it intended to stage a counter march caused the Police to ban marches in the city. After secret negotiations with the Police, the IRA switched the venue of their demo to Birmingham. A 'Flying Column' of coaches, vans and cars containing 400 NF activists anxious to confront the IRA murderers thwarted Police efforts to keep the NF out of Birmingham. Promises of a demonstration from the NNF proved to be hot air. The NF kept its promises and scooped the publicity.

After harassing NF vehicles as they assembled at Coventry ("keep moving . . . you can't park here") the Police then tried to block their progress into Birmingham. They refused to say which Law authorised their high-handed action.

NF members piled out of their vehicles to protest against the Police road block. A huge traffic jam developed. Into this chaos drove a coach loaded with unsuspecting IRA supporters! What happened next is too horrible to relate!

After finding a backway into Birmingham the NF members decided to quit their vehicles near to a park where they believed the IRA were assembling. Not finding the IRA in the park, the NF proceeded to look for them.

The crowd of NF members was within a few hundred yards of the IRA demonstration — which was now on the defy their tormentors and, by displaying courage, defeat them. This feature is about three men whose steadfastness in the face of persecution gives the cause they represent moral force.

The objective of the campaign was to intimidate Mr. Brons into giving up his membership of the NF or, if he did not do that, to pressure his employers into giving him the sack.

Last year a small clique of Reds within the Harrogate College student body got a "No Platform of Racists" Students' Union policy resolution adopted at an inquorate Union meeting.

Thereafter, a series of demonstrations were mounted at the college. These were mainly supported by people from out of town – many of whom were not even students.

Mr. Brons could not campaign in his own defence at college, but the NF case was put by an NF student at the college, Steve Gaunt, who launched an admirable magazine: College Front.

The impression given by the anti-Brons demonstrators was so bad that shortly after their "Week of Action" Steve persuaded the College Student Union (at a quorate meeting!) to throw out the "No Platform for Racists" policy!

MULTI-RACIALISTS in Lancashire have been 'gunning' for David Riley for some years now. His activities as Chairman of Accrington Group and NW England NF Regional Organiser often make them gibber with rage.

After harassing NF vehicles as they assembled at Coventry ("keep moving . . . you can't park here") the Police then tried to block their progress into Birmingham. They refused to say which Law authorised their high-handed action.

NF members piled out of their vehicles to protest against the Police road block. A huge traffic jam developed. Into this chaos drove a coach loaded with unsuspecting IRA supporters! What happened next is too horrible to relate!

After finding a backway into Birmingham the NF members decided to quit their vehicles near to a park where they believed the IRA were assembling. Not finding the IRA in the park, the NF proceeded to look for them.

The crowd of NF members was within a few hundred yards of the IRA demonstration — which was now on the move — when units of Police swooped in from all sides to block the way.

Wishing to steer the NF away from the IRA, the Police ordered the NF crowd to form a procession and specified a route. The head of the NF column was graced by West Midlands Assistant Chief Constable Ken Evans (2nd right).

The West Midlands Chief Constable Sir Philip Knights once vowed that he would never risk race war by allowing the National Union of Students (a "Broad Left" organisation) to run a joint campaign of harassment against Mr. Brons at his place of work.

The objective of the campaign was to intimidate Mr. Brons into giving up his membership of the NF or, if he did not do that, to pressure his employers into giving him the sack.

Last year a small clique of Reds within the Harrogate College student body got a "No Platform of Racists" Students' Union policy resolution adopted at an inquorate Union meeting.

Thereafter, a series of demonstrations were mounted at the college. These were mainly supported by people from out of town – many of whom were not even students.

MOB ASSAULT

In the first of these demonstrations Mr. Brons was ambushed, knocked to the ground and kicked. In the second, a mob burst into the staff common room and assaulted Mr. Brons' colleagues.

This hooliganism failed to have the desired effect either on Mr. Brons or his employers, so this year the Jewish-Communist alliance set up a "Week of Action" against Mr. Brons which culminated in a demonstration on 17th February.

Only 400 of a promised 2,000 turned up for this. They rampaged his own defence at college, but the NF case was put by an NF student at the college, Steve Gaunt, who launched an admirable magazine: College Front.

David Riley

MULTI-RACIALISTS in Lancashire have been 'gunning' for David Riley for some years now. His activities as Chairman of Accrington Group and NW England NF Regional Organiser often make them gibber with rage.

What really got their goat was a series of duplicated leaflets issued by Mr. Riley in which he drew local residents' attention to the fact that members of the Asian Community were seeking permission from the Planning Department of Hyndeburn Council to convert residential properties into take-away food shops, and explained how to register opposition to such applications.

The Reds and Race Traitors running the Race Relations Gestapo in the North-West instigated a High Court action against Mr. Riley, claiming he "incited racial discrimination".

Not content with that, they persuaded the Attorney-General to instigate a criminal prosecution against him for publishing matter "likely to incite racial hatred".

The High Court action is intended to burden him with legal costs and thus bankrupt him, and the criminal prosecution is intended to clap him in jail.

The prosecution for "incitement to racial hatred" would normally have been heard at Burnley Crown Court – but the venue has been changed to Preston because that town has a bigger population of Asians, and so Asians are more likely to loom large on the jury lists. (The Race Traitors leave nothing to chance when organising 'Justice'!).

Mr. Riley's trial commences on 29th March.

He is not letting these tribulations demoralise him. On the contrary, during the last two months he has supervised the launching of National Front Trade Unionists.

John Donegan

IN THE same way that anti-NF hatemongers cannot stand the idea of the NF Chairman being a college lecturer, so too they cannot abide the notion of an NF member being a member of a trade union.

John Donegan holds no office either in the NF or in his union NALGO. He is, however, a loyal member of both organisations and a hard-working employee of Islington Borough Council's baths department.

In May 1981 Mr. Donegan stood, as he had a perfect right to do, as the NF candidate for Islington South and Finsbury in the Greater London Council elections.

In his election leaflet he truthfully informed the electorate that he was an Islington Council employee and, as such, was a member of NALGO.

Later, the Marxist clique which runs the Islington NALGO branch preferred union "disciplinary" charges against Mr. Donegan. They alleged that in mentioning he was a NALGO member he had "brought the union into disrepute".

This "charge" was found to be "proved" at a 'trial'. The punishment imposed was expulsion. Mr. Donegan has filed an appeal against this decision with the National Executive of NALGO.

Should that appeal fail he will not give up the fight. He will take the matter to the High Court.

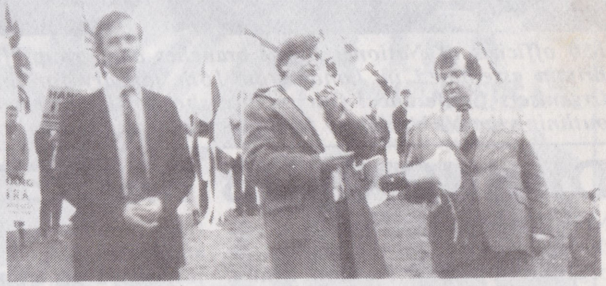
The West Midlands Chief Constable Sir Philip Knights once vowed that he would never risk race war by allowing the NF to march in Birmingham — but here is the NF marching by Birmingham City FC's ground without any trouble.



At the end of a long march the NF staged a rally in an open space in the Stechford district. Flanking NF Chairman Andrew Brons are NF Deputy-Chairman Ian Anderson and National Activities Organiser Martin Webster.

After the rally Superintendent John Mellor (right) formally cautioned Messrs. Brons, Anderson and Webster that they would be reported with a view to prosecution for staging an unauthorised procession. The march had in fact been organised by the Police!

PEARCE

ON 12th January the Organiser of the Young National Front, Joe Pearce, was sent to jail for six months after he had been convicted at the Old Bailey (at a second retrial, and by majority verdicts) of eight Race Relations Act charges that he had published in the YNF magazine Bulldog items "likely to incite racial hatred".

Having ensured that Joe's conviction and imprisonment received a blaze of publicity, the Authorities wanted the mass media – and hence the public – to forget about Joe. Joe's comrades in the NF were determined to see to it, however, that the Authorities were continually embarrassed by reminders about their youthful political prisoner and by demonstrations showing that the NF is not intimidated by Race Relations Act victimisation.

Willie's smoke ordeal

DAILY MAIL 9/2/82

SUPPORTERS of the National Front hurled a red-smoke-filled canister at the Home Secretary, Mr William Whitelaw, last night.

He was speaking at a Young Conservatives' meeting in Caxton Hall, Victoria, when about 50 National Front members, including one of their leaders, Mr Martin Webster, began to protest.

They were angry about the recent jailing of Young National Front magazine editor Joe Pearce who got six months for inciting racial hatred.

His supporters in the audience shouted at Mr Whitelaw: 'Free Joe Pearce!' Then one of them threw the canister at the stage which began to give off red smoke. It was a greenhouse fumigator.

Police guarding Mr Whitelaw radioed for help, the room was evacuated and four of the protesters were arrested.

Mr Whitelaw was not hurt and six members of the Front were arrested as the meeting was suspended in chaos.

[Pearce, editor of BULLDOG, a National Front magazine for young people, was recently given a six-month sentence for publishing material likely to cause racial hatred].

Other members of the Front who had infiltrated the meeting then began to chant and the smoke-bomb was rolled along the floor. It exploded, releasing dense red-coloured smoke. Mr Whitelaw later resumed his speech in an adjoining hall.
